“ Dear Caldwell Family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ I called her Aunt Elsie, even though she was my Dad's cousin. Aunt Elsie demonstrated her love of family throughout her life. . I have photos of her with my Dad and his brothers in the 1940s when they were home on leave from serving in the military. And when my dad was sick with cancer in the 1980s Aunt Elsie visited every week without fail. I learned from Elsie Baum Caldwell that the greatest present we can give each other is ..our presence.
