“ Dear, dear Elsie! What a character! She was as ornery as she could be, but underneath so sweet and caring. She always had something smart to say whenever she saw us.

What a difference she made in making band and choir trips better and fun. She was very devoted and loyal. She also was extremely proud of her kids and grandchildren. Hard to believe she has “greats”. Whenever we’d run into her she would regale us with all the new accomplishments. (Even you Doug!) we can still hear her contagious laugh.

Our sincere sympathies and condolences.

(We were out of town and sorry we missed seeing you.)

She left quite a legacy in you and your family.
