

E. Ruth Wright

March 16, 2007

Surrounded by her family, Ruth Wright, 90, of Elmer passed away peacefully in her home on March 16, 2007. Born in Salem, Ruth was the daughter of Oscar and Martha VanCulin. She and her husband Stephenson, whom predeceased her in 2006, moved to Elmer from Pennsville in 1972. Over the years Ruth had worked several jobs, but the one she most fondly remembered was when she worked at the Riverview Beach Park Pool. She was also very proud that during Second World War she served as a airplane spotter for the Civil Defense. Over the years Ruth volunteered for both the Pennsville and Elmer Libraries, she was a member of the original Women's Club in Pennsville, loved gardening, reading and all animals. She also cherished the times she spent camping with the family at Old Cedars Camp Ground and the trips they took in their Air Stream Camper. She is survived by her children, Evelyn "Billy" Scott of Elmer, Wayne and Grace Wright of Florida and Jane and Stanley Ford of Virginia, her sister Jeanette Cooker of Pennsville, 8 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. In addition to her husband Stephenson, whom she married in 1951, she was predeceased by her sister Frances Doran. On Monday, March 19, 2007 the family will begin greeting friends and neighbors starting at 6pm at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer. The Memorial Service will be held following this time at 7pm. On Tuesday morning, March 20th, friends and neighbors are invited to join the family at Eglington Cemetery, 320 Kings Hwy, Clarksboro for the committal service at the graveside. In lieu of flowers the family has requested that donations be made in Ruth's Memory to the HospiceCare of South Jersey
