

Ethel Morley Dodge

December 26, 2013

Ethel Morley Dodge, 91, of Elmer passed away on December 26, 2013. Born in Brack Ex, Delaware, she was the daughter of the late Rev. George R. Morley and Ethel Morley Pierce. Ethel grew up in several New Jersey towns as a minister's daughter, including Elmer. She graduated from high school in Camden followed with graduating from Goldey-Beacom College. She worked as an executive secretary at DuPont Chambers Works until marrying Raymond E. Dodge, Jr. and beginning her family and legacy as a partner at Dodge's Market, which she helped her husband run for more than 50 years. Ethel was a devoted mother and gave her life to her family and cared deeply for others. She was a member of the Elmer United Methodist Church for nearly 70 years and served it and her community with devotion, sharing that life with many dear friends.

She is survived by her daughter, Judy Daisey and her husband Glenn, son George R. Dodge, granddaughter, Tanya Butler and her husband Alfred, and a great granddaughter, Stephanie Butler. Ethel was predeceased by her husband of 62 years, Raymond E. Dodge, Jr. and her brothers, Curtis G. Morley and Richard Morley.

Services will be held on Tuesday, December 31, 2013 at the Elmer United Methodist Church, 21 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318. The visitation will begin at 11 am followed by the funeral at 12:30 pm. Interment will take place at Chestnut Grove Cemetery. The family has suggested that donations can be sent to either the Elmer UMC Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 375, Elmer, NJ 08318 or to Ranch Hope, 37 Sawmill Rd., Alloway, NJ 08001 in Ethel's memory. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
