

Euler "Tex" Ingling

September 17, 2006

Euler A. "Tex" Ingling, 76, passed away on September 17, 2006. The son of Edward and Mabel Ingling, Mr. Ingling grew up in the Medford/Medford Farm area where his family were local farmers. He attended Rancocas Valley High School and followed a career in construction trades and specialized in pipe laying and heavy equipment operation. He worked throughout South Jersey with different construction firms such as Ackerman/Harris, Geo. Smith Co., and the Scarborough/Quill Corporation. He is survived by his two daughters and their husbands, Patricia and Daniel Finlay of Southampton, NJ and Vicki and Glen Pannebakker of Linglestown, PA. Additionally, he is survived by five grandchildren, Shannon, Ian and Kevin Pannebakker and Lauren and Daniel Finlay II as well as Leona "Peggy" Ingling, Bill Williams and Pat Garoppo. No Service is planned at this time.