“ Dear Patricia, Michael and Family,
I'm sorry to hear my beloved Aunt Florence has passed on. Her Kindness, sweet smile and cute little laugh is forever etched in my mind. I remember fondly the fun Christmas Eve parties with all the family and delicious food. This is a tradition I carry on in honor of her. She may be gone but she lives on in my memories.

“ Remembering how your Mom welcomed us into her home when we came to talk to your Dad about building our house. Whenever we drive by your family home, we think of your folks and how they helped make our house a real home, built solid. Our sincere condolences.
