

Florence Reilly McCarey

October 18, 2014

Florence Reilly McCarey passed away on October 18, at the home of her daughter in Penns Grove, New Jersey, where her children had lovingly surrounded her in her final hours. Florence was born and raised in South Philadelphia. She was predeceased by her first husband, John McCarey, in 1953. She was also married to and later divorced from Edward P. Kelly, now deceased. Until July, Florence had lived independently in South Philadelphia for the past 20 years. She lovingly raised her devoted children, Kathleen Heisinger (Bryant) of Penns Grove, NJ; John McCarey (Margaret) of Cream Ridge, NJ; and, Lorraine Nunes, of Gloucester City, NJ, while living in Deptford, New Jersey. "Grammom Floss" is also survived by 12 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren. She is also survived by a sister, Marguerite Cullen of Philadelphia, and many nieces and nephews. Florence was predeceased by three brothers and a sister. Florence worked in the bookkeeping departments of Deptford Township and Camden County College for 20 years before retiring. She enjoyed her large family, her close friends, watching Jeopardy, dancing and visiting the casinos. She had an uncanny ability to "hit it big" at the slot machines in Atlantic City and Philadelphia. A wise lady who could stretch a dollar, she could always be counted on for sage advice. A viewing will be held on Thursday, October 23 at the ADAMS FUNERAL HOME, 18 E. Maple Ave., Penns Grove, NJ 08069 from 9 to 11 a.m., with a brief services to follow at 11 a.m. Interment at Holy Cross Cemetery in Yeadon, PA, will be private. Because Florence was a generous supporter of many charities, the family has suggested that, in lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Shriners Hospitals (www.shrinershospitalsforchildren.org), or, a charity of your choice, in Florence's memory.
