

Frank B. Ternay

June 2, 2014

Frank B. Ternay, 69, of Pittsgrove Township, passed away on June 2, 2014. Born in Bridgeton to the late William T. and Helen (nee Langley) Ternay, Frank was a graduate of Bridgeton High School where he had just celebrated his 50 year class reunion. Over the years, he worked as a foreman on the loading docks at Green Giant and most recently as a warehouse supervisor for Leslie Pool Supply in Swedesboro. Frank loved to cook and he was a huge fan of Stevie Nicks, the Flyers (he enjoyed playing hockey on Palatine Lake in younger years), NASCAR and anything that had to do with racing and four wheels. In fact, there was nothing about racecars and racing that Frank could not explain. But, most important, he loved his family and nothing brought him more joy than to be able to spend time and hang out with his grandchildren.

Frank is survived by his daughters, Tisha Gargon and her husband Scott of Pittsgrove and Jann Rogers and her husband Wallace of Elmer; his son, Bryan Ternay and his wife Cindy of Las Vegas, NV; his grandchildren, Mitch, Stephanie, Harley, Alyssa, Megan, Olivia, Scotty, Dane, Jeremy, Jade and Trey; and his brothers, William Ternay, Jr. of Bala Cynwyd, PA and Robert Ternay and his wife, Eleanor of Pittsgrove. He was predeceased by his parents.

A memorial service to celebrate Frank's life will be held on Saturday, June 7, 2014 at Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318 with a

“ I remember riding in the back of a car with Frank after a party, I never really talked to him , saw when I was a kid though. He struck me as the kind of person that guys hit it off with right away. We had a few drinks and we sat in the back of that car cracking up. I don't remember what we were laughing about but I know that I almost couldn't breathe I was laughing so hard she was a funny Unique man. I think even if you do not have a lot of memories about a person.... if they make you laugh uncontrollably and you remember that, well that's what it's all about and that speaks volumes to the type of person he was.
