“ My beautiful cousin and brother from another mother. Your death has devastated me. You brought such joy to those around you and made everyone feel as if they were your best friend. We were so much alike only being a month apart (both ornery, and left handed, among other things). Our mothers (sisters) carrying us at the same time and going to see "Psycho" at the movies just before we were born. I have truly lost a best friend in you....my life is forever changed. RIP
