

George J. Wilson

July 10, 2019

George J. Wilson, Jr., 84, of Elmer passed away on July 10, 2019. Born in Philadelphia, George was the son of George J. Sr. & Margaret Hickey Wilson. He had worked at Temple University as the Director of Service Operations and was also a college basketball referee for seventeen plus years. An avid sports fan, he followed all sports but was a huge Phillies fan! George also enjoyed boating but what he loved the most was spending time with his family.

He is survived by his wife of sixty-three years, Lorraine (Stein); children, Marion McNulty (Thomas), George Wilson (Nancy) and Stephen Wilson (Delia); siblings, James Wilson and John Wilson, nine grandchildren and four great grandchildren. In addition to his parents, his son James and a sister Molly Wilson predeceased him.

Services are private and at the convenience of the family.
