“ Sitting under the teaching of Jerry was the highlight of my spiritual life. Having grown up in a good Bible preaching church as well as being saved at a young age I had hit a wall so to speak of stagnation in my growth. After visiting just once I felt God wanted me to stay and grow which my family and I did. During the 7 years we were there my family faced a lot of trials that when I needed some personal conversations with someone he was there to help give guidance and Biblical council. This guidance is still visible in how I have been able to deal with things that are coming about now. One example is 7 years ago when I lost my wife Jerry was there, not physically but the things I had learned from him helped me to get through that time without being a total mess. Let me close by just saying thank you for praying for and with me and showing me why I need to have a solid prayer life, you are missed but we will meet again.

“ I will always remember how sweet Pastor Hill was to my mom the day before she died in 2004! He visited her and they had a blessed time together ... he shared this visit with me at mom's funeral with tears in his eyes --- it showed me how much he cared for my mother. This meant a lot to me. I know he will have a great Homecoming Service and sendoff with his flock at Calvary tomorrow!!!! Thank you Pastor Hill for your dedicated service for the Lord ... thoughts go out to Grace and family!

“ Grace, girls and son-in laws, We thank the Lord for leading us to Calvary Baptist many years ago. Our hearts are filled with many special memories. Becky and Karis growing into godly young women, etc. We have always counted it a privilege and a blessing to serve our precious Lord with you all. We will always grateful for pastor's encouragement when we were hurting . He will be missed and it fills our hearts with joy to know he is with the Lord he loved and served. We will continue to pray for you all as you walk in this hard time. In Christ's love Martin Lucille Eaton

“ Grace and girls, we love you and share in your grief. Gerry was the best pastor we had. We loved our time at Calvary. We miss you all. I remember with great fondness his deep love for the Lord, ho he could pray and get hold of the Lord, his spontaneous sense of humor, and genuine love for his flock. Praying for your family.

“ Grace, I was so honored to meet you and Gerry. Don't know if you remember me. I am a nurse that works in Salem dialysis center. Your faith in the Lord is contagious and allowed me to reaffirm. I thank you both for that. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May God Bless you all and give you peace.
