

Gladys I. Garrison

December 30, 2020

Gladys Irene Garrison, age 94, of Monroeville passed away on December 30, 2020. Born and raised in Monroeville to the late David Baxter and Algie Estelle (Ford) Lindsay, she was a member of the Monroeville Methodist Church. In her earlier years, Gladys worked as a seamstress for Mrs. Gaunt in Mullica Hill and the sewing factory in Elmer. Depending on her husband's career as a truck driver, she found herself moving around South Jersey but would ultimately end up on the farm in Monroeville. Gladys was a true country girl at heart, she loved her farm and she absolutely lived for her husband and her family.

Gladys is survived by her children Bill Garrison (Debbie) of Monroeville, Dave Garrison (Kim) of Centerton and Diane Garrison (Bob) of Monroeville; her grandchildren Tony Voros (Shelly), Robert Garrison and David Garrison; great granddaughters Grace Emma Voros and Heidi Garrison; and many nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband William H. Garrison, her grandson Bill Garrison Jr. and eleven siblings.

Due to the restrictions surrounding the coronavirus pandemic, Gladys' services will be private for the family and she will be laid to rest next to her husband William H. Garrison at the Friendship Methodist Church Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made in Gladys' memory to the Alzheimer's Association by going to www.alz.org.
