

Glenn E. Toft Sr.

October 27, 2014

Glenn E. Toft, Sr. (79), formally of Pennsville, NJ died on October 27, 2014 at home in Lake Worth, Florida. Born April 28, 1935 to the late Harold and Nellie (Dence) Toft, in Endicott, New York and moved to Penns Grove in early childhood where his father worked at DuPont Chambers Works. Glenn graduated Penns Grove High School, left college to enlist in the Army, was honorably discharged and returned home to follow in his father's footsteps at DuPonts. He laid eyes on a young girl walking down the street one day and asked his buddies to introduce him, he said that girl would be his wife, it was then he met his loving wife of fifty years, Carole A. (Jenkins) Toft, who predeceased him eight years ago. He left DuPonts and began his own construction company in Pennsville. Together they spent many years with family and friends at the Jersey Shore, vacationing around the world, and many many weekends on the Chesapeake Bay. They moved to Florida to care for their disabled son, Gregory E. Toft Sr., who passed away fifteen years ago. There he started his own retail store to serve the very medical personnel taking care of his son in the medical uniform business. Glenn was an avid hunter and every year went to upstate New York to his family estate to hunt with family and friends. He tried to attend the family reunion every year where all the Toft's and Dence's would gather for another year's remembrance, fun and entertainment. Glenn had one adoring sister, Genevieve "Babe" Trotman, who predeceased him. Glenn and Babe spent many holidays together at their respective homes in Pennsville, Middletown, Del and Florida. Babe was the light of his life, she was always there for her brother when times were tough with that beautiful persona that only those who knew her would understand.

Glenn is survived by three loving children, Glenn E. Toft Jr. (Betty Jean) of Middletown, Del, Alicia J. Fogg (Ross), Alloway, NJ and Carole Anne Toft, Lake Worth, Fl. One niece, Patricia Fisher of San Diego, CA., grandchildren; Gregory E. Toft Jr., Michael G. Fogg, Jeremy Glunt, great grandchildren; Jaiden Toft, Wyatt Glunt and many loving cousins in New York to include Jean, Grace, and the Toft girls, to name a few, survive him as well. He was also predeceased by his cousin, Everett.
