

Gordon L. Clevenger

December 31, 2019

Gordon Clevenger, 83 passed on New Year's Eve after a long fight against Parkinson's and Cancer. He was predeceased by his mother, Opal Sheppard and his father, Fon Clevenger, as well as many cherished aunts and uncles. He is survived by his wife, Mary Beth Clevenger and daughter, Gordanna A. Clevenger, also his beloved sister, Fran Walker and adored brother, Bob Sheppard, and maternal aunt Eva Foster.

Gordon was born and raised in Pennsville, Salem County, He was a proud tin can sailor serving on the Destroyer, USS Robert E. Wilson for the United States Navy. Gordon had a great love of politics, a lifelong Democrat serving in many capacities. He was most known as the sign man with his little girl by his side. Gordon enjoyed many types of work over his lifetime; clothing good salesman, baker, landlord, union iron worker, business owner (laundromat, hair salon, seafood restaurant, wholesale foods). He most enjoyed working for the Township of Pennsville as its Supervisor of Roads and Maintenance. Gordon enjoyed helping his friends and neighbors and working with the men and women of the Township Maintenance Department. In his retired life, Gordon moved to Ocean City and became involved with the Parkinson's Life Center through Body and Balance where he made many friends and enjoyed their company as he exercised to combat the effects of Parkinson's. He was a member of the St. Damian Roman Catholic Parish in Ocean City and a former member of the Queen of the Apostles Parish in Pennsville.

A viewing will be held on Saturday, January 4, 2020 from 10am until 11:30am. Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad Street, Woodstown NJ 08098. Service will follow at 11:30am. To Gordon's family, my most sincere sympathy. I knew Gordon back in the middle 70's when he was good enough to rent me the first floor of the old jail on the corner for my little print shop. He was a great landlord, I always enjoyed his visits. Always had a joke or clever comment when he passed by. Good guy. Nothing but nice memories.
