March 19, 2014

Gwen Florence DuBois, 63, of North Wales, PA passed away on March 19, 2014. Born in Woodbury, Gwen was the daughter of the late Raymond L. DuBois and Vera (Smith) Tongue. Prior to meeting her companion and best friend of the past thirty years, Gwen had been raised and lived in Elmer. An accomplished athlete, she had competed in the Wheelchair Olympics as well as many other competitions in archery. She also loved to dance and being in a wheelchair was not going to hold her back. Along with John, they would often go out to many clubs that sponsored and organized wheelchair square dancing nights. In addition to her competitiveness and determination, Gwen was a thoughtful and caring individual who will be missed by all who knew her.

Her companion and best friend, John Martin, siblings, Jeffrey DuBois, Jay DuBois, Melissa Dubois and Gale Husava as well as her step-mom, Eileen DuBois, survive her.

“ I recently learned of Gwen's passing and while it brought a moment of sadness it was followed by many, many moments of fun and laughter we shared as children growing up together. Playing together, being on the boardwalk in Ocean City, birthday parties or just visits to see Gwen even when she was in the hospital as a young girl. I will always remember her ability to preserver and live life.

You see we were born in the same year, so I can truthfully say: "Old Friend, you will be missed!" Through Gwen is gone, she will not be forgotten by me.
