

Hannelore H. Miller

February 6, 2016

Hannelore H. Miller (nee: Uhlig), 82, of Pilesgrove NJ, passed away peacefully on February 6, 2016 after a brief illness. Her husband Mr. Stephen Miller, who passed away last September, preceded Mrs. Miller in death. Mrs. Miller is survived by her children, Stephenie Beauchamp (Bruce); Dirk Miller (Adrienne); and by her grandchildren, Lauren Reinhard, Graham Reinhard and Brianna G. Miller; and by her brother Reiner Uhlig (Carolyn) of West Chester, PA.

Mrs. Miller was born in Germany, the daughter of Alfred and Paulina Uhlig (Schoenlein). She immigrated to the US in 1960, and worked as a secretary at the DuPont Company. She then met and married Mr. Miller, and they made their home in Woodstown. Mrs. Miller became a US citizen in 1976. She was a homemaker for a number of years before becoming a secretary in a law firm and then a real estate agent. Mrs. Miller retired in the late 1980's.

She was an avid gardner and bird watcher, and enjoyed spending time outdoors. She was an excellent cook and loved knitting. She was an animal lover and will be missed dearly by her beloved puggle Gracie.

“ I loved Hann as much as I loved Steve. She accepted me from the beginning of her coming to America and treated me like family. Any visit to my family in Swedesboro ALWAYS included a visit with my Miller family...never did I leave New Jersey during those 58 years without spending some time with two folks I loved like my very own family. They invited me on overnights, included me in dinners and we spent many hours on that beautiful patio that opened to what appeared to be the Garden of Eden. We meant so much to each other that it was Hann, herself who called me one-and-a-half hours after Steve passed. I cherished that call so much that I have not yet removed it from my message unit. A terrible, painful loss for the Miller family but I'm happy for them that they're together again in Heaven. My heartfelt prayers for you all as you recover from both losses.

Love, Don
