

Harriet F. Harris

July 5, 2014

Harriet F. Harris, 74, passed away on July 5, 2014 after a seven-year battle with breast cancer. She was the daughter of David A. & Elizabeth Patrick Fogg. She was a 1957 graduate of Salem High School, attended Juniata College and graduated from Penn State University. Harriet was a dietitian and food service director. An Air Force veteran, she was stationed in Seattle, Washington, Texas and Kansas. She worked for the AT & SF RR Hospital, South Hill Nursing Home in Spokane, WA, Department of Indian Affairs in Sitka, Alaska and the VA Hospital in Martinsburg, WV and Perry Point, MD where she retired. She became a born-again Christian at age 28. She earned her private pilot's license in 1967. Thirty-five years of her life were spent in Alaska where she loved fishing. Her interests were church work, genealogy and being an LAC Ruritan. She was a member of the Canton Baptist Church and attended Penton Chapel.

She is survived by her husband of 45 years, Linn Harris of LAC; daughter, Rebecca Donelson of Goshen, KY; grandchildren, Katie, Erin and Jillian Donelson; stepchildren, Walter Harris of LAC, Keith Harris of Enumclaw, WA, Robert Harris of Spokane, WA and Kathy Harris of Seattle, WA. Also survived by sisters, Alice Fogg of Pine Grove Mills, PA and her husband, David Pitman, Mary (John) Allen of Union, WV and brother, Richard (Kay) of LAC.
