

Harry G. Wagner

July 17, 2007

Harry G. Wagner, 91, formerly of Wallingford, Pa., and now residing at the Friends Home in Woodstown, NJ passed away on July 17, 2007. Born in Rutledge, Pa., to Joseph F. and Pauline (Martin) Wagner, Mr. Wagner lived in the family home in Swarthmore until moving to Wallingford. He graduated from Swarthmore High School in 1934 and went on to get his degree in finance from the Wharton School of Finance. Mr. Wagner ran the family business, Mlasovsky & Wagner Fine Clothing in Philadelphia until closing in the seventies. He spent six years in the Army Air Force during the Second World War coming out as a Second Lieutenant with the 82 Airborne Paratroopers. He is survived by his brother, Walter Wagner, Woodstown, NJ and his brother-in-law, Hank Horn of Wallingford. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his sister Ruth Horn. Services will be private and at the convenience of the family. www.adamsfuneralhome.org