

Harry R. Lindsay

September 3, 2007

Harry R. Lindsay, 64, formerly of Pitman passed away on September 3, 2007 at his home in Pittsgrove. Born in Philadelphia, he was the son of the late George and Catherine Lindsay. Mr. Lindsay graduated from Clayton High School, enjoyed the Jersey Shore, in particular Ocean City, and worked for many years as an electrician for the IBEW Local. He is survived by his daughter Shawnda Conser of Marmora, NJ and a son Stuart and his wife Aimee of Kenneth Square, PA and two grandchildren, Taylor and Lauren Lindsay. In addition, his brother, George and two sisters, Carole Narcisco and Sue Hollingshead survive him as well. Services are private and at the convenience of the family. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Shawnda and Stuart,

Steve and I were saddened to hear about your dad. We wish to extend our sympathies. Memories of your dad...and mom...certainly help with the healing. Please know that you all are in our prayers.

God bless,

Barbara Priggemeier##imported-begin##Barbara Priggemeier##imported-end##

November 14, 2011 at 10:27 AM

“ Dear Shawnda, and Stu, Sorry to hear of the loss of your Dad. He was always such a nice person, and so kind to Lauren, especially on the Ocean City Junket. Your memories will keep you loving your Dad forever. Take care. Diane##imported-begin##Diane McClintock##imported-end##

November 14, 2011 at 10:27 AM