

Helen Mae Fox

March 25, 2025

Helen Mae Fox passed away on March 25, 2025, surrounded by her loving family. She was born on December 2, 1954, in Bridgeton, New Jersey, to John L. Chann and Helen (Stevens) Chann. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend whose kindness and love touched everyone who knew her.

Helen devoted her life to her family, consistently ensuring they received care, support, and unconditional love. She was a woman of profound faith, consistently demonstrating her belief that every challenge could be overcome. Helen was known for her kindness, understanding, generosity, patience, and selflessness. She had a gift for nurturing people. Her dedication to service was evident in the positive impacts she had on multitudes of children, whether she worked one on one with them or merely crossed paths with them, as a paraprofessional in the Pittsgrove Township School District.

Helen enjoyed crafting items for those in her life, crocheting blankets or hats for family and friends or for those in need. You could frequently find her preparing her car for a trip to 52nd Street in Ocean City, where she could be caught riding some waves or collecting seashells along the beach. What Helen enjoyed most was spending time with her grandchildren—teaching them the most valuable lesson in life: how to love and be present during all moments of life.

Helen is survived by her children Steven Fox (Christi), Stefanie Fox-Manno (Jason) and Stacy Fox; her five grandchildren Peyton, Colton, Aiden, Wyatt, and Riley. She was predeceased by her parents, John L. Chann and Helen (Stevens) Chann along with her five siblings George Chann, Donna Chann, Carol Cornwell, Robert R. Chann, and John A. Chann.

A funeral will be held on Wednesday, April 2, 2025, at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad Street, Woodstown, NJ 08098. There will be a visitation starting at 9:30am leading to the memorial service at 11:00am. The burial will take place directly after the service at Chestnut Grove Cemetery, 20 Richwood Road, Elmer, NJ 08318. In lieu of flowers, the family has asked for donations to be made in Helen's memory to the American Cancer Society at donate.cancer.org or Project Purple at projectpurple.org in Helen's memory.
