While there she volunteered for the House of Charities as well as other activities held at the church. Helen was a fantastic cook and looked forward to spending summers down at Sea Isle City with her family and friends. She was also a member of the Friendly Singles Fifty Plus, was a huge Phillies fan and loved ballroom dancing.

She is survived by her children: Beth Dondici and her husband Sandy, Anthony Napoleon and his wife Anita and Mark Napoleon as well as six grandchildren, Carmen (Lauren), Dana (Aaron), Jena (Adam), Nicollette, Gabrielle and Gianna. “Helen was such a bright light, and I always admired how she lived such an active, fun life right up to her ballroom dancing days! Such a lovely lady. Thankfully she was surrounded by the best family. You're all wonderful children. Prayers for her and her family. We're all thinking about all of you. xo
