Henrietta Teresa Wible, 95, a life-long resident of Elmer, NJ passed away at home on Saturday, October 4, 2025 with family around her. Born in Philadelphia, PA to the late Henry and Teresa (Weidner) Seibert, Henrietta was a graduate of Bridgeton High School.

Henrietta was predeceased by her husband Harry Wible III and is survived by her sons Tim (Vicky) and Scott (Becky), her siblings Harry, Raymond and Darlene and her grandchildren.

Henrietta was always looking for any way she could help anyone of her family, her friends or the community of Elmer. She delivered Meals on Wheels on a weekly basis for over 20 years and volunteered at the Elmer Hospital gift shop, also for many years.

Henrietta was a very artistic person and she loved to paint and refurbish antique furniture in her spare time. But she will always be remembered as the most loving and caring wife, mother, grandmother and sibling that you could always count on. Those who had her in their life were thankful for it.
