

Herbert J. Cunningham, Sr.

December 10, 2006

Herbert J. Cunningham Sr., 80, of Elmer died on December 10, 2006 with his children by his side. The son of Raymond and Edna Cunningham, Herb worked for many years for Joseph F. Layman Plumbing and Heating and then as a custodian for the Elmer Elementary School and a courier for the First National Bank of Elmer. He was a member of the Elmer Grange #29, the New Jersey State Grange and held degrees in the National Grange. He also served for many years as the Salem County Deputy for the State Grange. In addition, Mr. Cunningham served the Borough of Elmer for 20 years as a Councilman, chairing the Water Committee. He was predeceased by his loving wife Marie and is survived by his children; Terry Harris and her husband Barry of Monroeville, Herbert J. Cunningham Jr. and his Debra of Elmer, Scott Cunningham and his wife Shelly of Pittsgrove and Ann Strang and her husband Leon of Upper Pittsgrove. His sisters, Irene Permenter and Jean Roussin and a brother Donald Cunningham and six grandchildren, Troy W. Harris, Cody A. Harris, Kelsey M. Cunningham, Tristan D. Cunningham, Jessica I. Cunningham and Katrina L. Strang also survive him. A brother Raymond and a sister Nancy Wriggins predeceased him as well. A viewing will be held on Thursday, December 14, 2006 from 9-11am at the Adams Funeral Home 111 S. Main St., Elmer. The service will follow the viewing at 11am with interment at Eglington Cemetery in Clarksboro. In lieu of flowers the family has requested that donations be made in Herb's Memory to the Elmer Grange #29, 535 Daretown Rd., Elmer, 08318.