“ Ingrid was my best friend throughout grammar school, high school, and beyond. Although I moved away to go to college and then into my career, Ingrid and my other "cronies" were never far from my thoughts. I was saddened to learn of her passing only recently. She was a happy person, fun loving, adventurous, and inventive. Being around her was always fun. She loved life, her family, her pets, and her friends.

Ingrid, was one of my best friends ! We knew each other since the age of 5. Thru the good and bad. She endured physical pain for years. I know that now, she is pain free & back with her "Butchie". Always, a loving & giving person. I miss her terribly! My thoughts & prayers are with her family.
