

James C. Conto

November 24, 2007

James C. Conto, Sr., 47, of Pilesgrove passed away on November 24, 2007. Born in Elmer, James was the son of the late Anthony "Dutch" and Elizabeth Conto. James enjoy life...from fishing, shooting pool, riding his Harley and just hanging with his buddies in the garage. Although everyone usually asked him for mechanical advice, he didn't always give it right away. Instead, he would let you work on it for awhile until he finally said "you might want to try this". Jim graduated from Woodstown High School in 1978 and he was self-employed as a Mac Tool Distributor. Although he loved his friends, his family always came first, his wife Barbara (nee: Hoglen), his daughter Jamie and sons, James, Jr. and Brian, his sisters, Donna and her husband Jim Guarrera of Monroeville, Tracy and her husband Charles Hannah of Alloway, Beverly Conto of Browns Mills, his brother, Kevin and his wife Leslie of Monroeville, nieces and nephews, Nicole, Danine, Taylor, Adam and Joshua as well as his dogs, Pudge and Toby all of whom survive him. A viewing will be held on Wednesday night, November 28, 2007 from 6:30pm until 9pm at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ and again Thursday morning starting at 10am. The service will follow the viewing Thursday morning at 11am at the funeral home with interment at St. John's United Methodist Church Cemetery in Harrisonville. In lieu of flowers the family has requested that donations be sent in James memory to the SJ Hospice Care, 2848 S. Delsea Dr., Vineland, 08360. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
