Jimmy lived all of his life in the Monroeville area. Except for when he was a young man proudly serving his country as a US Marine. Part of his life he spent working as a butcher where he learned the trade at Foote's Slaughterhouse in Monroeville. He retired in 2011 from Ace Glass Inc. in Vineland and was an active member of the Marine Corps League in Vineland. In times of need Jimmy was the person in the family we could all count on for help.
