

James William Hash

October 27, 2011

James William Hash, 82, of Woodstown passed away on October 27, 2011. He was born in the Flat Ridge Community of Grayson County, Virginia. He had worked for the Penn-Central Railroad for over twenty years and then for the Woodstown-Pilesgrove Board of Education for another ten years before retirement.

He is survived by his children, William A. Hash, Sr., of Woolwich Twp., Wanda Sue Moschell of Ohio, Karen Elizabeth Moore of Virginia, Judy Lynn Hitchner of Woodstown and James Randall Hash of Virginia, his siblings, Gilbert Hash of California, Wiley Hash of Virginia, Maye Jones of Virginia and Garnett Hash of North Carolina, thirteen grandchildren and several great grandchildren, three sister-in-laws of Grayson County, Virginia, two brother-in-laws, one in Newark, Del., and the other in Sugar Grove, Virginia. In addition to his parents, his wife Lucindia Ellen Hash (nee: Hawkins) and a daughter, Annyie Lee Puritt predeceased him.

Services will be held on Monday, October 31, 2011 at the Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318. The viewing will begin at 10am with the service following at 11am. Interment will be private. www.adamsfuneralhome.org