

Janice M. Pollock

December 18, 2024

Janice M. Pollock (Trapp), age 75, of Pittsgrove, passed away Wednesday, December 18, 2024, surrounded by family. Born in Vineland, NJ, Janice was the daughter of Arthur G. and Antoinette (Danna) Trapp. Jan grew up in Pittsgrove and was a graduate of Vineland High School, Glassboro State College, and later Rowan University with her Masters in Educational Administration. Jan spent many years as a beloved teacher, and later Principal of Lambs Road Academy. Jan's love of children grew as her family expanded to include grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She co-founded with her husband Steve, Behold His Glory Ministries, and spent many years spreading the love of Christ and providing support to those on the streets of Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

She was predeceased by the love of her life, Rev. Stephen J. Pollock, Sr. Jan will be greatly missed by her children, Stephen J. Pollock, Jr., Kim Goss (Brian), grandchildren, Stephen Pollock III (Samantha), Savannah Hassan (Bill), Juliet Clee (John), Justin Pollock (Paige), Michael Goss, and Kate Goss; and 8 great grandchildren; sisters Lorraine Lehman (Tom), Carol Ferguson (Kurt), Deborah Trapp, and predeceased by brother, Martin G. Trapp (Stacy).

Graveside services will be held on Sunday, December 22, 2024, at 12:00 PM at Willow Grove United Methodist Church Cemetery, in Pittsgrove, NJ.
