

Jean DuBois

December 25, 2009

Jean DuBois, of Mannington Township, passed away peacefully on December 25, 2009, with her devoted husband Elwood DuBois Jr. at her side. Jean is now with her Lord.

She was born Jean Allen in Germantown, PA. She was a graduate of Methodist Hospital School of Nursing and was a working RN for a number of years. During that time, Jean led the Salem Candy Stripers, which produced many nurses from their experience in candy stripers. She later opened a craft shop in her home and shared her extensive knowledge of handwork with many local customers. She was an accomplished needlecraft artisan in her own right and her wonderful count thread items grace a number of homes. She also helped found and was active in the Lamplighter's Chapter of the Embroiderer's Guild. Jean also was an accomplished pianist and worked with local church choirs and sang in the church choirs as well.

Jean was a wonderful wife and mother and brought much happiness to her home with her loving care and devotion. Her greatest achievement in her life was her never-ending love of her family and friends, and creating a warm, caring home. All who knew Jean loved her.

Jean is survived by her husband of 61 years, Elwood DuBois, Jr., her daughter Susan E. DuBois and her son Elwood DuBois III (Nancy). Jean also had three grandchildren, Bob Evans, Nancy Evans and Emily Peterson. She is also survived by nieces and nephews.

A family graveside service will be held at Eglington Cemetery, Clarksboro, NJ, where she will be laid to rest. There are no calling hours.

Contributions in her memory may be made to the Mannington Ambulance, 175 Route 45, Salem, NJ, 08079. Condolences to www.adamsfuneralhome.org
