Memories of Dollar Days in downtown Pennsgrove and our couple of dollars making us feel rich and grownup when we bought something, eating juicy tomatoes and peaches on the back porch at your Dad's house, visits to Cow Town and all those summer sleepovers, those moments when we as girl cousins were so precious to me. Your kindness and down to earth goodness through out the years I will never forget. You have been and always will be in my heart. Only illness prevents my husband Ken and I not being in Pennsgrove today. I am so very sad for all our family members to have this pain of losing Jeannie so soon. I thought we would have forever to visit and catch up. All my love, Cousin Kathie Williams- Pitman
