August 12, 2016

Jennie Florence Costello (nee Sierocinski), age 91, of Nortonville, died on the morning of Friday August 12, 2016 with her loving granddaughters by her side.

Born in 1925, Jennie grew up on a large family farm along High Hill Road in Logan Township. She met the love of her life, and husband of 70 years, in 1942. When he was drafted into WWII she devoted herself to the war effort and worked for the DOD. She and her husband married promptly upon his return in 1946.

Together they built a new home and started a family and flourishing produce business. With her mother by her side, Jennie managed the day-to-day responsibilities of the family farm. She enjoyed an honest day's work alongside her family and thrived on the company and conversations of those who came by the stand.

Her love for her friends and family was unconditional. She was full of wit and wisdom that she loved to share with those around her. Jennie will be remembered as a devoted wife, loving mother, and doting grandmother.

“ Aunt Jenny

*We will miss you, especially the "checking on you" phone calls. Leann loved you like she loved her grandmom (Jean). She always said how much she enjoyed talking to you and how you reminded her of her grandmom. You will be in our hearts forever.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Mrs. Costello's family. She was a wonderful woman and we shared many long talks. She always told me how beautiful a woman my mother was and how handsome and helpful my father was, especially in his police uniform. I cherish our memories together. She will be greatly missed.
