

Jennie L. Romano

September 17, 2021

Jennie L. Romano, 82, of Carney's Point passed away on September 17, 2021. Born in Oldmans Township, Jennie was the daughter of George & Leona (Argo) Webber. Until retiring, she had worked as a teacher for thirty-four years at the Clement School in Carney's Point. In addition to teaching and watching children, Jennie also loved playing word games, drawing, and doing arts & crafts.

She is survived by her children, Thomas Romano Jr., Dan Romano (Dorothy), Aggie Romano, Anna Verdecchio and Angie Clemente (Robert); siblings, Leona Locke, Joseph Zimkouski and John Zimkouski; ten grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband Thomas A. Romano, Sr., a son, Salvatore and siblings, George Webber, Betty Webber, Isabella Powell, Lotty Webber, Charles Zimkouski and Ada Przybycien.

The family is extremely grateful to all the prayers and kind words that have been sent their way. However, due to covid and for the convenience of the family, services and burial will be private. They have asked that donations be sent to St. Jude's Research Hospital at St.Jude.org in Jennie's memory. www.adamsfuneralhome.org
