“ I read the obituary about the loss of your loved one and I extend my sincere condolences. Death is truly an enemy but there is comfort in the Holy Scriptures that “God will actually swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.” Isaiah 25:8?

“ Aunt Jennie was one of those few people who always bring a positive energy with them, and always leave smiles and happiness in their wake. She just always seemed to be in a good mood. As for memories, one of my favorite things was the way she'd jump into a conversation by yelling, “Guess What...”. Of course, there were a few New Year's Day get-togethers at her house to watch the Mummers Parade; and most fondly, Christmases at the farm. What a wonderful person she was. I'm so glad she was my aunt, and I will miss her dearly. Fortunately, she will never be forgotten, as I'm confident that happy memories of Aunt Jennie will periodically put a smile on my face for the remainder of my time here on Earth.

Our love and sympathy to Teresa and Tony.
