

Jennie B. Williams

October 11, 2023

Jennie B. Williams, 83, of Alloway passed away on October 11, 2023 after a long illness. Born in Salem, Jennie was the daughter of Benjamin D. & Edith Niblock Brooks. She grew up in Quinton and graduated from Salem High School in 1958. Jennie was employed as a secretary for Prudential Life Insurance in Millville. After many years as a homemaker, she began working for the Rutgers Cooperative Extension in Mannington, where she retired in 1998. She was a long time member of the Alloway United Methodist Church, a den mother for the Cub Scouts and loved spending time at her favorite place, Ocean City. Jennie was renowned for her cooking and baking and she thoroughly enjoyed doing both for everyone.

She is survived by her two sons: Walter C. Williams III and John Brooks Williams and his wife Lisa; four siblings, John Brooks, Isabel Locuson, Elizabeth Brennan and Edwina Chew as well as three grandchildren, Samuel Williams (Danielle), Audrey Deaville (Terry) and Ford Williams. In addition to her parents, her husband of 64 years, Walter C. Williams, Jr, predeceased her in August of this year.

Services are private and at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Salem County 4-H foundation, 51 Cheney Rd., Woodstown, NJ 08098.
