“ Had the great honor to spend some time with Joan both at family gatherings years ago, as a Facebook friend and then when she was in ICU. What a wonderful loving woman with a great deal of spunk! Wanted to crochet while in ICU! Awesome! Never saw anyone else want to do that in all the years I worked in ICU. She was a woman of old fashioned values and principles. She had a strong faith and knew she was going to be with Jesus and would be reunited with her husband. Much like my own Father I sensed no fear in her regarding passing from this life. She was a great Mother, Grandmother, and all her other roles to family. She was a blessing and an encourager to others. Prayers for her family. She has left a space that cannot be filled by any other. Treasure the memories and always reflect on what she taught you holding it close to your heart.
