

John C. Burbank

December 2, 2015

John Charles Burbank passed away suddenly on Wednesday, December 2, 2015 at the young age of 49. He was a lifetime resident of Pittsgrove Township where he attended school and went on to live with his wife. He will forever be missed by the many who knew him. His genuine kindness and loyal personality left a mark on every single person he came across. He was a loving son, husband, brother, cousin, nephew, grandchild, uncle, father, grandfather, and friend. He is survived by his wife, Jennifer (Isaak) Burbank; his parents, Charles and Roseann (Linderman) Burbank; his grandparents, Mary Linderman and Shirley Hervish; his brother and sister, Ricky (Patricia) and Denise Burbank; his three children, Ashleigh Wands, CarrieAnn Wands and Jonathan Mace, Jr.; his 2 nephews and six grandchildren.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday, December 8, 2015 from 4 to 6 PM at Adams Funeral Home, 64 Broad St., Woodstown, NJ 08098. Interment will be private. In lieu of flowers, please contact the funeral home for donation information. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ I have several memories of my brother John, too many to list. Sadly you will be missed everyday of my life. It's hard to move on, but I know deep down that I have to and you would want me to. Thank you John for being the best big brother I could ever ask for and please watch over me, our little brother Rick, your wife Jen, your children, grandchildren, grandparents, nephews and our wonderful parents. I love you and R.I.P my dear brother.

“ John was like my brother growing up, I spent more time with him than any other member of my family. He became friends with my friends due to his personality. Through the years we drifted apart as most people do, but John would come by from time to time and we would talk about the past and future. He had a smile and would help me in any way if I needed him. I will miss you my brother / cousin, RIP.
