John D. Carrow, Sr., 84, of Pittsgrove passed away on October 24, 2011. Born in Penns Grove, Mr. Carrow was the son of Samuel Sr. & Ellen Carrow. Prior to moving to Pittsgrove, where he and his wife lived with their daughter for the past fifteen years he had lived in Gibbstown. Mr. Carrow served in the United States Marine Corp. during the Second World War. He was a member of the Verga VFW Post #7125 where he served as the Commander in 1978, 79 and 80 and was also a member of the Military Order of the Cooties: pup-tent 35. He never missed the VFW Conventions in Wildwood, enjoyed a good game of pool, shooting darts or just talking on the CB, where he was known as the "Flying Eagle".

John was well known for his smiling face and great personality. From his friends at the Deptford Mall to the waitresses at Pegasus, everyone looked forward to seeing him. When he was active with the VFW, he enjoyed entertaining at the Shady Lane Nursing Home in Clarksboro and the Soldiers Home in Vineland. Kitty, his wife and our mother, was the love of Dad's life. They took many vacations to Disney World, Myrtle Beach and Wildwood and they loved to dance together.
