

John J. Horoschak Jr.

January 3, 2024

John J. Horoschak, Jr., of Fayetteville, Pennsylvania, passed away on January 3, 2024. He was born February 2, 1930. He was the son of John J. Horoschak, Sr. and Anna Horoschak (Hudick). His wife of 67 years, Audrey Horoschak (Wegner) predeceased him in 2019. A son, John B.

Horoschak, predeceased him in 2018. He is survived by daughters Karen Horoschak, Donna Horoschak, and Linda Holmes, and son-in-law John W. Holmes, III.

Additional survivors include his grandchildren, Meredith Peebles; Christopher Holmes; Emily Craig and spouse Shane Craig; and Phillip Holmes. Also surviving are a brother-in-law, Curt Houghton, and several nieces.

John was born and raised in Mount Carmel, Pennsylvania. He attended Susquehanna University, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in chemistry. After graduation, he began a long and successful career in the glass industry. He primarily worked for Owens-Illinois, Inc., retiring as Vice-President of Manufacturing. He also worked for Obear-Nester Glass

Company and Latchford Glass Company.

John's career involved many moves to various states in the U.S. He and Audrey lived in Toledo, Ohio, and then Bridgeton, New Jersey, where they resided for several years. They relocated to the Toledo area twice more and also lived in Illinois, Louisiana, Georgia, New York, and California.

After John retired, they moved to Williamsburg, Virginia, where they lived for several years before moving to Fayetteville, Pennsylvania, to be closer to family. John lived for nearly 30 years there, enjoying golf and other hobbies. A life-long Christian, John was most recently a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Fayetteville. Early in life, he was member at St. Michael's Orthodox Church in Mount Carmel, Pennsylvania.

John will be remembered for his resilience in the face of adversity and steadfast devotion to Audrey. He will also be remembered for his storytelling and endless jokes and puns. He will be greatly missed.

Services will be held on Tuesday, January 16, 2024 at Adams Funeral Home, 111 S. Main Street, Elmer, NJ 08318. There will be a visitation starting at 11 AM leading to a memorial service at 12 Noon. Interment will follow the service at Olivet Cemetery in Pittsgrove, NJ.

“ Dear Karen, Donna, Linda, and family,

I was sad to learn about your father's passing. I am John's first cousin - my dad Joseph, and your grandfather, Jack, were brothers; however your dad and my dad were close in age - five years apart. We knew him as "JR". I met your dad in 2003, at our Uncle Peter's 80th birthday party in Mt. Carmel. He called me after my dad died in 2013, and we corresponded at Christmas for a few years, probably up until your brother passed away. I'm sure the last few years were tough for him after your mother passed.

Please accept my condolences and sympathy,

Nina Horoschak Bagshaw
