

John Dennis (Jack) Hyde

December 4, 2025

John Dennis (Jack) Hyde, 71, passed away on December 4, 2025. Born in Omaha, Nebraska, John was the son of Joseph and Joan Hyde. His life took him from Omaha, to Arizona, to Santa Rosa, California, before he eventually came to live in Malaga, New Jersey.

In California, Jack and his beloved wife, Janet, co-founded HyDome, a company whose success reflected their shared dedication, creativity, and hard work. After many fruitful years in business, Jack retired and embraced a lifelong passion: collecting and selling vintage comic books. He had a deep appreciation for creativity in all its forms and enjoyed music, movies, chess and a good book.

Jack was an engaged member of his community, serving with both the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. Through the Rotary, he and Janet opened their home as host family to numerous foreign exchange students, many of whom they remained close to for years to come. Though Jack and Janet did not have children of their own, they poured their hearts into their roles as aunt and uncle. To many, he will forever be remembered as Uncle Jack, a title he cherished.

Jack is survived by his wife Janet; his father Joseph Hyde; his siblings Joseph Forest, Jeanne Collins, Jim Hyde, Janet Stephens and Jennifer Blair; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Jack is predeceased by his mother Joan Hyde.

Jack's warmth, curiosity, and generosity left a lasting impact on everyone who was fortunate enough to know him. His life was rich with connection, conversation and quiet kindness, and his memory will be held dearly by family, friends, and all those whose lives he touched.

Services will be private and held at the convivence of the family.

“ Jack and I went to Princeton to learn how to use the "color matching" computer program...(I worked for the family in Safford Az at Hytech). which is where I got to know him as my friend...a generous, VERY humorous fun loving guy; always adventurous. I truly cared and love both Jack and his wife Janet. The company itself lended to a love for family which was and still stands out to me as to why their company was successful. Jack had such a zest for life itself and curiosity...and would just go after it! I admired that in Jack. I am heart broken for the family, for Janet, and please know he was such a blessing to me and to know him and all the family. Such a special part of my life as well as my wife's. Sending our love and prayers.

“ When I was young my brothers and I would stay Saturday nights at uncle Jacks house. He was always an avid comic collector and we would lay, sprawled out, reading comics with him for hours. He always recorded He-man and Transformers for us to watch together on weekends. Even as I grew up, any time everyone would get together, we would always make sure to see the newest comic/superhero movie. Uncle Jack remains a kid at heart all his life. He was a true inspiration to the father I became. I will always remember everything I learned from you. I love you. See you again soon.

He gave us all great memories. When we went to NJ in October he was still collecting comic books! It was great to see he kept doing what he loved❤️.
