

John "Jack" Haines

February 11, 2010

John N. "Jack" Haines, 74, of Monroeville passed away on February 11, 2010. Born in Bridgeton, Jack was the son of William & Maryon Haines. He was a graduated of Woodstown High School and went of to serve in the U.S. Army from March 1960 till June 30, 1965. Mr. Haines was the owner, operator of Haines Bros. Shell in Vineland and went on to work at St. John's the Beloved in Deptford and the O'Shea Center in Elmer before his retirement.

He is survived by his sister, Maryon (Haines) Norvell and her husband Charles of Newark, Del., his daughter, Karen Schaller of North Carolina, four grandchildren, two nieces, Angelia and Ann Marie and two nephews, Thomas and Charles. He will be dearly missed by his best friends, Sue and Sandy Ross of Pittsgrove, Albert Campbell of Mullica Hill and Martin Wiggins of Millville. He was predeceased by his grandmother, Marian R. Bisbing of Monroeville, his parents, William & Maryon Haines of Woodstown and his twin brother, James W. Haines of Vineland.

A viewing will be held on Wednesday, February 17, 2010 from 10 till 11:30am at the Adams Funeral Home 111 S. Main St., Elmer, NJ 08318. The service will follow at 11:30am at the funeral home with interment taking place at Friends UMC Cemetery in Monroeville. The family has suggested that donations can be made to the Helen Graham Cancer Center, 4701 Ogletown

Stanton Rd., Newark, Del., 19718 in Jack's memory. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

Tribute Wall

“ ##imported-begin##Ann Marie Haines Potter##imported-end##

November 14, 2011 at 10:27 AM

“ Uncle Jack will be sadly missed he was a great Uncle to me as he raised me. He was considered my Father and I'm glad he's at peace now with Grandmom. I will love him always Ang##imported-begin##angela haines dickhut##imported-end##

November 14, 2011 at 10:27 AM

“ Sadly missed, Ann&Family##imported-begin##Ann Marie Haines Potter##imported-end##

November 14, 2011 at 10:27 AM