“ John came into our family and gave his love and support unconditionally and without limitations. He loved my mother as she deserve to be loved, took care of her through her Battle of cancer, supported my sister through her battle with cancer oh, and was there for me through very tough times in my life. He became a grandfather in 2007 and thoroughly enjoyed his grandchildren. I will forever cherish the memories and photos with him and my children. I can't express in words how shattered I feel losing him too, and so suddenly and unexpectedly. Itf only we could have another 20 years...
