“ May God bless the family, relatives, and close friends of John Lloyd during this time of sorrow. May he rest in peace. I was happy to have known him beginning with Elementary School and briefly in Boy Scouts, then during High School including time with the French Club and French Classes. We both graduated the same year from East Fairmont High School. He was very polite and easy to get along with. He will be missed!

My Condolences,

“ It is with great sorrow that I post this message. John was a dear friend for many of our early years. It is often I mention to my wife and family, some of the most comical times of we shared. Not only was he a witty guy, but probably the most intelligent I knew. Although our lives changed with marriage, family, and careers, John was someone I would catch myself referring to a lot, I was so happy for him when he married, and had a son, I just knew he would be an excellent father, and looked forward to getting together again someday That day did not come, and his loss is getting harder and harder to accept. I can only imagine the loss for those closest to him. My prayers will be with his family always.

With great respect,

“ To All Who Loved John...

I was very sadden to hear of John's passing away. I was so very fortunate to know John as a fellow associate and friend when we worked together at Wheaton. John always started every presentation with a updated picture of Max. He made all feel part of his family and we all respected his love and pride towards his son. It is obvious that God sometimes takes the best at a young age to make heaven brighter and I believe this to be true for John .
