

John G. Parlapiano

August 17, 2014

John G. Parlapiano, 65, of Carneys Point passed away on August 17, 2014. Born in Camden, John was the son of Michael Sr. & Elvira (DiGregorio) Parlapiano. John graduated from Penns Grove High School in 1967 and attended LaSalle University and then Long Island University for Marine Science. He retired from the Salem County Sheriff's Department after twenty-five years at the correctional facility. John was also a member of the Bayshore Center at Bivalve, which was formerly known as the Delaware Bay Schooner Protect. This project was started to restore the A.J. Meerwald which is New Jersey's tall ship. He was also a member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary and the Chesapeake Bay Foundation.

His Best Friend of many years, Dee Curriden, his brother, Michael Jr. and his wife Cynthia, nephew, Michael N. and wife Nadine and their three children, Alec, Trista and Billy survive him. He was predeceased by his parents.

A Memorial Service will be held on Thursday, August 21, 2014 at the Adams

Funeral Home, 18 E. Maple Ave., Penns Grove, NJ 08069. The family will be available starting at 2 PM with the service following at 3 PM. The family has suggested that donations can be sent to the Bayshore Center at Bivalve, 2800 High Street, Port Norris, NJ 08349 in John's memory. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ Dee, I'm so sorry to hear of John's passing. I lost my husband a few years ago and still miss him, but be assured it does get easier as time passes. John was a lot of fun to sail with and was very good with the kids on the ed sails. My thoughts are with you.
