November 15, 2014

John Perez, 50, of Lindenwold, NJ passed away on November 15, 2014. Born in Texas, John was the son of Samuel & the late Loretta Lackner Perez. Over the years, he worked as an installer and repairman for heating and air conditioning. Easy going and friendly to everyone he met, John will be remembered as being outspoken, the life of the crowd and enjoying life to its fullest.

His children, Emilee Perez, Ivey Perez, Michael Martinez and Shane Khan; his father, Samuel Perez and his wife Lynn; siblings, Robert (Barbara), Samuel (Norma), Matthew (Jennifer) and Jennifer Nevins (Michael), two grandchildren, Brooklyn and Myhia and a dear friend, Karen Khan survive him. “ John and I worked together at his father's AC company. He was a good spirited man who enjoyed life and did not sweat the small stuff. He was a gentle giant a big man with a loving heart I am sorry his stay here was so short. Rest in peace John! J.Schaefer

“ To my father. My father was the type of guy that could accept anyone for who they were. He was honest out outforth and didn't try and sugar coat what was. He was such a simple kind of man it made him complicated as not many people these days lived the way he did. He was content with his choices. He always made me feel welcomed and loved above all else. I'll always remember his sense of humor, because more than anyone I've ever met he found the humor in everything. I'll miss him more than words can describe. But I feel comforted by the fact that he's at peace.

John "Beef" Perez was the closest friend I ever had. He passed the day before my birthday and unfortunately I was incarcerated at the time of his passing. I had finally just begun to change my ways when I left for prison and only wish he could have seen this change. He was always trying to steer me in the right direction and give me sound advice. He was a man I could look up to and most definitely count on. He really was the "life of the party." He knew how to make myself and others laugh uncontrollably. Beef, I know your next life will be even more blessed. I believe one day we'll be "Road Dogs" once again. Thank you, my friend, for never giving up on me. May God bless you and all your loved ones.

“To my brother, I'm still having a hard time with you not here it's going to be a long time before the healing is done. The memories, it seems like yesterday you took me to my first concert, it was Boston June, 1983 and the time you let me drive your car, I didn't even have a license. You were the best man at my wedding that meant a lot to me. All the fishing trips, what can I say they were magical just me and you and Bob and Sammy I will treasure those times for ever. Fishing just won't be the same any more. I will never forget all the times we just sat down talked about all the crazy things we did back in the day, I will just leave those stories in the past. I will always treasure the memories we had together there were a ton of them. I will always love you, you were my brother and my best friend you will be missed but never forgotten. Rest in peace, God bless your trip home to mom I can't wait for the day to see you and do some more fishing together. Your loving brother Matthew.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. John was always some one to make you laugh. My son called him Uncle Beef. Like most, we knew him as Beef. You will be missed John...aka Beef. Heaven will be a better place with your sense of humor in it. Love and miss you. Xoxo
