“Of all the things we did and accomplished together, I've never seen you more proud then when you would brag about Emma's riding skills and show off that video of her doing donuts with you cheering her on. Today ripping through those mud puddles, I know you'd be the proudest dad in the entire world... Beaming from ear to ear saying that your daughter rides better then most guys you know... How she's a natural. The kids could go on to save the world one day but you'd never stop bragging about her riding skills. Wish you were here to see it johnboy. Love ya always

*You should be here,
standing with your arm around me here.
Cutting up, cracking a cold beer,
saying cheers, hey y'all it's sure been a good year.
It's one of those moments,
that's got your name written all over it.
And you know that if I had just one wish it'd be that you didn't have to miss this
You should be here*

“ That first chill is in the air John boy. You've been waiting all summer to sleep with the windows open. Now it's finally your time of year and you aren't here with me. You're the first thing on my mind when I wake up and the last thing before I fall asleep. I miss you

“ I read the obituary about the loss of your loved one and I extend my sincere condolences. At this time you are feeling an unbearable pain, and experiencing a great loss. Psalms 46:1 says, “God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress.” He lovingly cares for you and does not want you to handle this time alone and he wants you to pray to him. (1Peter 5:7)
He will help you get through this difficult time. (Isaiah 41:10)
I hope this brief Bible message has brought you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

“ John,
From the day I met you, you have been a part of my family. I could write a thousand pages of memories....catching turtles at the lake with Emma and Tommy, riding quads at Nan & G-Pa's, crazy nights at the Alibi Room, nearly catching the town on fire on the 4th of July...I could go on forever. You were a great dad, a great friend, and the best brother in law I could have ever asked for. It's going to be so hard to keep going without you here but I am so thankful for everything you brought to our lives. I'll miss you forever buddy, give Remy a big hug for me.

“ I learned how to ride that quad you've been meaning to teach me today. Burnt the shit out of my leg but I did it. Me and pook had a nice ride before we got chased out. The joy on Emma's face as we were riding around makes me miss you a million times over. You were so proud of her. Wish you were here my John.

“ Although we never met, I feel like I knew John through the wonderful times and planning his fiancé Lauren would share with me at work. It was obvious how much love John and Lauren had for each other, the anticipation of their married future, and the home they were sharing with their children. My, as well as many other coworkers, heart goes out to Lauren and Johns family.

“ I only knew John for about 2 years, but he was someone who you can call a genuine good friend. Everytime we would hang out it would always be great times. John was engaged to one of my best friends Lauren Knox. I was always very sketchy about guys she brought around, but that wasn't the case with John. He treated her wonderful. John was also an amazing Father to Tommy and Emma. I was very fortunate to know John and have such a good Friend. He will be greatly missed and never forgotten. Rest Easy Brother

“ You're my John and I love you.

I'll always treasure every moment we had. Me and Pookie will miss you forever. She was tearing it up today and I know you would be smiling, cheering her on, teaching her more crazy tricks.

I don't know where to go. I don't know how to get by. All I know is we will love you forever.
