

John Philip Romer

September 18, 2015

John Philip Romer, age 48, of Williamstown, passed away suddenly on Friday night, September 18, 2015. Born in Willingboro to Walter and Janet (nee Roop) Romer, John grew up in Monroeville and was a 1985 graduate of Gloucester County Christian High School. An ASE certified auto mechanic, he worked for Pep Boys in Glassboro and Pilgrim Auto World in Williamstown. John was also an active member of the Christ Community Baptist Tabernacle in Newfield. His generosity knew no bounds as he loved to volunteer for his church and was willing to help anyone, especially to fix their car. John will be missed by many.

John is survived by his parents, Walter and Janet Romer of Monroeville; his three sons, Steven Romer (Kristina Grando) of Millville, Timothy Romer (Samantha DeJohn) of Williamstown and Daniel Romer, also of Millville; their mother, Doris English; his brother, Jason Romer (Shelly) of Tamaqua, PA; his niece, Brittany Romer; and his yellow lab, Heather.

A graveside service will be held on Friday, September 25, 2015 at 11 AM at the Chestnut Grove Cemetery in Elmer. In lieu of flowers, please contact the funeral home for donation information. www.adamsfuneralhome.org

“ *So sad to hear of John's passing. We are praying for the entire Romer family and all your extended family and friends. My last memory of you is through my son's eyes - Craig referred to you as the man that climbed the big tree in our front yard to the tippy top. Thanks for the memories and for be a genuine, caring man. We will miss you.
