“ I worked with John for at least 10 Years, he took all new mechanics under his wing, and there were a lot of us at the BF Goodrich/Geon/Polyone/ Plant over the years. His knowledge of the plant and his experience over the years helped shape me and many others to continue on with his work, I learned a lot from him, I was saddened by the news of his passing. He was always friendly, had a great sense of humor, I was hoping to run into him at a car show soon. Papa John will be missed by all that knew him. My sincere condolences to his family that he often spoke of.

“ Words cannot express how heartbroken we are about the passing of "Papa John". My sister and I did not have a father in our lives until we met your family. AnnaMae and John welcomed us both into their family the moment we set foot into their house many years ago after becoming very close friends with Sam in choir. Giving them the title Mama Shoe and Papa John. That led to many late nights singing karaoke in their living room and extra pounds after eating all of Mama Shoe's delicious snacks. We never left their house feeling hungry or unloved. This truly hurts on many levels and our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time.

Love Always,

Connie and Angie

“ *What a great guy John was! Together, he and Annamae made one of the best couples I have ever been around. Always a lot of fun and full of all kinds of stories. But, the best stories were about his beloved family. I will always remember John as our wonderful Santa. All the kids, including mine, loved seeing him every year. Prayers for John and his family. May they find peace knowing what an impact he had on so many people. Love,

“ Aunt Annamae,

*First let me say what a courageous woman you are!!
To sneak into our predominately IRISH FAMILY WAS AWESOME!!
WE OFTEN KIDDED YOU ABOUT YOUR ITALIAN HERITAGE,
BUT THANK GOD YOU FOUND EACH OTHER❤️
THANK YOU FOR MAKING HIM HAPPY ALL HIS LIFE.*

This site is beautiful. Never saw anything like it. But I am at a complete lose what, where to convey anything that will remove the agonizing pain I can't image you are feeling.

Here's what I know about your marriage and my uncle JOHNNY.

I've never seen anything but a smile on your face and laughing at uncle johnny and his antics! You gave me your famous icing. I have made it often it was so delicious. Maybe it's an Italian secret. Seeing uncle johnny at many, holidays, birthdays, he always sought me out. Called me kitten. Always making me feel special. In my younger years, I always begged to "go to uncle johnny house". I never witnessed any father who adored anybody's baby. He had a touch even when holding them in the "football" hold❤️

It didn't matter how much time passed by. I hugged him and felt his love for me. If you weren't with him we all knew why. ", THE BRIDGE!!" 😳 You did make it for my mom and that I will always remember. 😔

In my opinion, he was one of the best fathers and I was lucky to sometimes be in his glow. He was so dedicated to Samantha's singing talent. Most would encourage. But he took her everywhere to show what a special daughter he had.

Our family is many, 99 now to be exact. The biggest shame is not making more time to all get together. There are those who say, it's too much. Too many. I disagree! Granny had 10 people in her kitchen at all holidays. She never said it's too many....we just came and went during whatever the holiday was. I remember kids eating so far into the living room they could answer the door .

THOSE ARE THE MEMORIES. THE HOLIDAYS. THE BIRTHDAYPARTIES OVER YEARS, THAT BIND US TOGETHER FOREVER AS A FAMILY. THESE TIMES TOGETHER WE LEARNED ABOUT A RELATIVE WE DIDNT KNOW ABOUT OR STORIES ABOUT OUR UNCLE TOM, FOR INSTANCE. THE MORE UNCLE TOM DRINKS. THE MORE FUN HE BECOMES! NOT A SHOCK TO ME. AS WE SO ARE CLOSE 🙄

People say these things all the time after someone dies. "WE'LL MAKE TIME FROM NOW ON. SO SORRY COULDN'T GET TO YOUR HOUSE AT CHRISTMAS" CHRISTMAS AND ALL OTHER HOLIDAYS ISNT JUST ONE DAY AND DONE. THERE IS PLENTY OF TIME.

What else are we so busy doing?? IN UNCLE JOHNNYS MEMORY. LET MAKE AN EFFORT TO CROSS THE BRIDGE. SHOW AUNT ANNAMAE HOW MUCH SHE IS LOVED. ALL THE KIDS. GRANDKIDS, MOST I'VE NEVER MET!

I WILL BEGIN WITH ME. WHO ELSE CAN MAKE TIME TO COMFORT UNCLE JOHNNYS FAMILY?

LOVE LIVES IN MY HEART ❤️

KITTY

♥ Beautiful Aunt Kit. Love Uncle Johnny and his family so much! You're right they always have a smile on their face and are full of laughter and fun. Most people cannot say they lived a life like Uncle Johnny! A ray of sunshine! Our family definitely will not be the same. Aunt Anna Mae I am so so sorry! Love to you and his children ♥♥

“ The loss of Uncle Johnny will be felt for a very long time! He was SO positive, so upbeat! He was a lover of all people. I remember that he especially loved babies! As soon as someone would come through the door with a baby he was reaching to hold him/her. He was pretty good at getting a crying baby to settle down, too! Uncle Johnny would always call me when he was headed to the Hagerstown Speedway. He told me he didn't have time for a visit or even for dinner - but he was thinking of me. He was very good at doing little things that really added up. I am so sorry that we have lost him. Annamae and family - my heart aches for your loss. I send love to you all
