“ As i sit here still in disbelief, my heart is heavy and my eyes are full...we spent 11 years together and i will keep those memories tucked ever so gently safe in my heart! You was my first true love and no one can ever take that from me.. God is too wise to make a mistake, he called you home for a reason that we may not fully understand..we all must face this final transtion in life, until then my friend the next time i see you i too will have wings!!!
I will forever love and miss you John L. Stanton Jr.

“ John,
My old friend, I apologize for all the years that passed us by. When I heard that God took you home, he also took a part of me too. Then all the memories of us growing up together came flooding back, like I was seventeen all over again. I remember the times we had playing football, baseball, or just going fishing together. Those times we shared will forever remain in my heart and soul, and for that you will live on in my heart forever. You were like a brother to me and I will never forget the times we had together. I try to make sense out of Gods plan for us, but can't seem to find any answers. I do know that the people you touched in your life time are feeling the same way I am. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family.
Your Old friend (forever)

“ John,
My old friend, I apologize for all the years that have passed. When I heard that God took you home, he took a part of me too. All the memories of us growing up as kids came rushing back into my life, I felt like I was seventeen all over again. I remember the times playing football, baseball, or just going fishing. Those times we spent together will forever remain in my heart, and soul, and for that, you will always live on in my heart. It's so hard to figure out Gods plan, and I don't think I ever will. You were like a brother to me and I will never forget it. I will miss you My old friend, and I will keep your family in my prayers.
