

John W. Sickler, Jr.

January 21, 2011

John W. Sickler, Jr., 88, of Upper Pittsgrove passed away on February 21, 2011. Born in Alloway, Mr. Sickler was the son of J. Walter & Blanche (nee: Jarmen) Sickler. Over the years, he had worked as a farmer, a parts man at Owens Supply in Woodstown and as a custodian for the Daretown School. He had a passion for motorcycles, especially Harleys, enjoyed spending time in the garden, doing some bird watching, hunting, traveling and collecting bottles and arrowheads and he served in the U.S. Navy during the Second World War. However, of all the things he did and accomplished throughout his life what mattered the most to him was the love of family and the times they spent together.

He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Doreen (nee: Garrison), his daughters, Kay Sickler Aliberti and her husband Carmen of Richwood, Joyce Mulford and her husband Walter of Elmer, Karen Sickler Fox and her husband Wayne of Pittsgrove and Amy Boni and her husband Anthony of Florida, a son, John W. Sickler, III and his wife Yong of Maryland, a brother, Jonathan Sickler (Helen), sisters, Mable Hannold (Wilson) and Barbara Harrell, eleven grandchildren and five great grandchildren. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by three brothers, Bill, George and Lester, two sisters, Leona Crouse and Bernice Sickler and two grandchildren, Jason Fox and Craig Mulford.

Services will be held on Thursday, February 24, 2011 at the Pittsgrove Baptist Church, 368 Daretown Rd., Daretown 08318. The interment will take place at 10am at the church cemetery. Afterwords, the family will be available starting at 11am for anyone who wishes to stop by and pay their respects and the service will follow at 12pm all at the church as well. The family has suggested that donations can be made to the Pittsgrove Baptist Church in Mr. Sickler's memory. Condolences to www.adamsfuneralhome.org
