“ I have many fond memories of Uncle Boots. He and mom used to take turns taking us kids to Daretown Lake to go swimming. There was a time when we pitched tents outside underneath the willow tree at night and he lit a fire cracker outside the tents and scared us half to death, he got the biggest kick out of that. After Aunt Helen passed, he would ride his bike past the shop and stop in and talk to Clint and Jason. I'll always remember his laugh. Love and miss you Uncle Boots, say hi to mom for me.
